

World Cup TV offer at Littlewoods Bingo

If everyone in your house is eagerly awaiting the World Cup and you're preparing to watch the games at home with plenty of food, drink and shouting at the TV then Littlewoods Bingo have a great promotion for you!

Yes bingo (and football!) fans, the bingo giants Littlewoods Bingo are giving away three fantastic TV's this week which are all worth £500 each, so you can make sure you don't miss any details of the game when watching on your new big screen.

Not only that but the five runners up of the competition football fans can get their hands on some pro football party packs which include loads of England goodies such as baseball caps, car flags, giant flags as well as party poppers and face paints, and of course the essential England away shirt. This of course is a great excuse to host a football party and cheer England on as they play their way to the top.

For those of you who aren't footie fans, but are losing your family members to the excitement of the game, then you too are in for a treat as you could win an anti football party pack which includes a hamper full of pampering goodies as well as loads of retro sweets and chocolates for that little bit of indulgence!

So make sure everyone in your household is happy and to enter in this brilliant promotion all you need to do is to spend at least £20 on either bingo or slots games at Littlewoods Bingo, either today (1st June), the 3rd or the 7th June and you will automatically be entered into the draw.

Good luck to all you football fans out there and if you want to be in with a chance of winning a brand new TV or loads of football goodies then head on over to Littlewoods Bingo today!
